29 November 2012

Dear Ms Matthew

Application for Decision by the Scottish Information Commissioner Public Authority: Dundee City Council

Thank you for your email of 29 November 2012, in which you informed Julie Frew that you wanted to withdraw your technical application to the Scottish Information Commissioner for a decision. As a result, the Commissioner has determined that no decision falls to be made in relation to the application. Your case file has now been closed.

The Commissioner is required to let you know that you have the right to appeal to the Court of Session against her determination that no decision falls to be made, on a point of law only. Any such appeal must be made within 42 days of the date of intimation (i.e. date of posting) of this letter.

While the file has now been closed, Dundee City Council's apparent failure to comply with certain requirements of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 may be taken into account for the purposes of future action under the Commissioner's Enforcement Strategy.

Yours sincerely

Alison Davies
