Dear Ms Matthew

I am just writing to you today to give you an update on the enquiries I made on your behalf. Having spoken to the Scottish Government I understand that some funding has been released but that they are aware that the issue is still outstanding and are working towards a resolution.

As far as the Council is concerned I have raised the matter with Alan Baird, Director of Social Work, and he has informed me that someone will be contacting you to see what needs to be done.

I would be grateful if you could keep me up to date on the results of these conversations and if there is anything else that I can do please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Joe FitzPatrick
